DR. SCHENCK'S
Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.
These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of Consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution.
Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which of course, must make a cure impossible.
Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium. It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which Consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genuine cure for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions.
Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, and at the Quincy House, Boston, on the following Wednesdays, June 10th and 24th, July 8th and 22d, and August 5th and 19th. je6-eod

Newport Daily News.
MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1874.

HUGO, THACKERAY AND HAWTHORNE.—Hugo and Thackeray both indulge in ample comment; but Thackeray's moralizing only partially impedes dramatic action, while Hugo's declamation is so interwoven with the story as to be almost beyond eluding, and is connected with a coarse and dazzling mixture of colors that reminds one of the scene painter's trick. In Thackeray there is no hint of effect for effect's sake; but Victor Hugo's novels may be said almost to reek with it. An equally eloquent contrast is furnished by the romances of Hawthorne. "As the feeling with which we start at a shooting star, compared with that of watching the sunrise at the preestablished moment," runs Coleridge's fine phrase, "such and so low is surprise as compared with expectation." Now t in the determined preference of this lower pleasure that distinguishes novelists of the theatrical class.

Observe, as opposed to this, that in "The Scarlet Letter" the identity of the unknown sharer in Hester's sin is clearly intimated in the opening scene, and the mind of the reader thus thrown forward, in an attitude of expectation, which the objective treatment pursued throughout the book is designed to assist. Such a master does not find any jack-in-the-box surprise needful to engage his audience. But Hawthorne stands in an atmosphere peculiar to himself. To distinguish him from Thackeray, by calling him an Idealist, would entail misapprehension; for no novelist possessing genuine insight can fail to be in some sort an idealist. His personal impressions, and keen, unswerving perceptions must enter into the substance of his creation: idea will sensibly enter into every item of the representation. But this much may be said, that Hawthorne's idealism is exceptionally free from all turbidness. It might be conceived of as a clear and stainless, rounded and buoyant sphere, and capable of bearing us serenely through the most solemn and awful spaces.

So far is this idealism from being opposed to that of the acknowledged writers as people are often inclined to believe it, that we find Hawthorne's realism to be careful, detailed, perfectly true, and perfectly finished. But so suffused is it with fine spirituality, that it does not yet gain popular recognition. Some quality is perhaps wanting in his realism, which would make it more acceptable to the public. But Hawthorne being engaged with the operation of spiritual laws, did not enter so industriously into descriptive realism as many others have done; although, with a true delight in appearances, he used to these particular realistic means which were apt to his purpose with a complete mastery.—September Atlantic.

FURNISH ROOM.—Now that the first spurt of enthusiasm about Rome, the capitol of a united Italy, has subsided, a more moderate view is taken of what this city, after the actual renovation is completed, is to become. Rome during the next twenty years may add a hundred thousand to its population; but there is not now any good ground for believing that it will get much beyond that. Not a step is yet taken for introducing any new industry, and it is alone by opening new sources by which a livelihood is to be obtained that an increase of population is stimulated. The annual product of the labor of the 250,000 Romans only amounts to two or three millions of dollars, or at least, it is this sum which figures in the commercial reports as the value of the mosaics, jewelry and other works of art which make up the trade of Rome.

I see by the last report that a smaller population in the state of Rhode Island, produces articles of manufacture of the annual value of considerably more than $100,000,000. The fact serves to show the difference between the manufacture carried on by the aid of machinery on a large scale, of a great variety of articles of universal utility, and the piddling processes of the unaided hand in producing the petty objects of a snuff-box commerce.

For the rest, the Romans do not work for more than half the year, and now, in this hot season, when the foreigners are away, Rome keeps up the title, which the poet gave it, of the "Silent City." About half the shops in the Via Condotti, so much thronged in winter, are shut, and the quiet of the town for two or three hours at midday is extremely agreeable to very young people like ourselves, of a romantic turn of mind.—[Correspondent New York Times.

CAUSE OF IMPERFECT VISION.—In a lecture before the Royal Institution, England, on Light and Color, by Dr. Clerk Maxwell, he draws attention to the fact that all persons have a yellow spot upon the retina of the eye, which tends to make color vision imperfect. The yellow, he says, is more pronounced in dark than in fair persons, and it has a tendency to injure vision more when the individual is tired and overworked than when he is well and active. To make this spot on the retina sensible to the observers, Dr. Maxwell threw a disk of light on the screen, and colored the disk by making the light pass through a solution of chloride of chromium. The light thus produced is of a red color, mixed very largely with greenish yellow rays, which are copiously absorbed by the yellow spot. He then told the observers to wink slowly at the disk, and they nearly all then saw large red cloud like spots floating over the disc, in consequence of the absorption of most of the rays, with the exception of the red, by the yellow spot in the eye. When the disk was gazed at steadily, without winking, the floating red clouds disappeared.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 76 State St., opp. Kilby St., Boston.
AFTER AN EXTENSIVE PRACTICE of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Research made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their application, in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents—they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." Subscribers who are troubled with the poor delivering of the News, will confer a special favor to the publishers by notifying them of the fact without delay.

THE DAY.

A Providence man feels earthquakes. The state constables had better attend to his case.

The New England fair opens at Narragansett park, Cranston and Howard Hall, Providence, tomorrow.

Harwich, Mass., has declared for Cæsarism. One of the inscriptions on the depot when the President passed through there was "Harwich for Grant in '68, '72, '76."

The Boston Advertiser wants railroad passengers to enter by the rear and leave by the front door. Why in the world is not that the universal rule? Conductors and brakemen could see that it was observed.

Senator John Turner of Bristol, as counsel for an alleged liquor seller, raised the point of the constitutionality of the state constabulary law in the police court at Pawtucket, and the justice declined to pass on the point. He expressed his intention to consider the law all right till some higher tribunal had decided otherwise.

They have a man in Missouri who seems to have a put up job with the weather clerk. During the past year he has made over a hundred out door addresses and has never been interrupted by bad weather. This man's name is Colman and he wants to be governor and if he can make the sun shine whenever he speaks and the rain fall on his opponent he ought to win the day independently of the Granger vote which ought to go solidly for a man who can protect hay from rain by merely appearing in the field to make a campaign speech.

After January 1st 1876, Missouri voters will be subjected to an educational test, and the St. Louis Globe waxes jubilant thereat as it believes that an educational test will disfranchise as many Democrats as the iron-clad oath did. The colored Congressmen of South Carolina are threatening their constituents with an educational test, which is equivalent to disfranchisement, unless they put better men than Moses in office. If this threat were carried into execution it would make a change of some magnitude in a state where superintendents of schools can't read, and members of the legislature can't cipher.

PERIODICALS.

Harper's Magazine.

Harper's Magazine for September covers an extensive variety of subjects, and contains over One Hundred Illustrations. The Number opens with one of the best articles which Porte Crayon has ever given to the public, entitled "On Negro Schools." Its illustrations are effective, and in their peculiar style are inimitable. A very comprehensive and entertaining paper on sepulture, entitled "The Silent Majority," with twenty eight illustrations, is contributed by Junius Henri Browne.

Professor J. E. Morse concludes his able review of the astronomical work accomplished in connection with observatories in the United States. His article this month with fourteen illustrations, includes notices of the observatories at Cambridge, Dartmouth, Hamilton College, the University of Michigan, the Sheffield Scientific School, and of the Dudley Observatory. Edwin De Leon contributes an important paper showing the present condition of commerce in the Southern states. A very striking paper on Thackeray, illustrated, is contributed by R. H. Stoddard; and John H. Snively gives an interesting article, also illustrated, on the "Art of Perfumery." A new serial story, charmingly written, entitled "Rape of the Gamp," is commenced in this number, with illustrations by Fredericks. This artist has also, in this number, a remarkable illustration accompanying Mrs. C. A. Mericlel's beautiful poem, "Roses of Florence." Two other illustrated poems are contributed by J. T. Trowbridge and Nelly M. Hutchinson.

The Galaxy.

The leading article in point of interest in the September number is a sketch of Marshal MacMahon, by Eli Reclus, the distinguished French general and literateur, whose military and political experience and accurate knowledge of English gave him peculiar facilities for writing this sketch of the most conspicuous man of Europe. Another noticeable article, entitled "The Romance of Holland House," which is based upon the book of the princess of Liechtenstein and other authorities, contains a fund of curious anecdote and unfamiliar history connected with this most interesting of English palaces. Mr. Richard Grant White contributes a second iconoclastic article upon the "Music of the Future," discussing this time the compositions of Franz Liszt, the great rival of Wagner in the new school of music.

The Lady Blanche Murphy is represented by a sketch of travel in Italy. J. T. Headley also contributes a pleasant Italian picture woven into the form of a love story, the scene being laid in Genoa.

There are two other love tales in the number, the best being an English one by Theo. Gift. A fair sprinkling of poetry and the usual Departments of Literary Criticism Science, and Gossip, complete a varied and entertaining number, well suited to the month of September, whether the reader be an overworked dweller in cities or a happy sojourner at sea-side and mountains.

PERSONALS.

.....The Boston Advertiser says that the husband of the lamented Parepa-Rosa is sadly broken down both in health and spirits by his great loss, and totally indifferent and spiritless.

.....The St. Louis Republican congratulates King Christian, of Denmark, upon his good fortune in the selection of a crowd like Halstead, Field and Bayard Taylor to travel with.

.....Bradford, the great American painter, has just finished a splendid picture of the coast of Labrador for Baroness Burdett Coutts, for which he asked her eight hundred guineas, and she sent him a check for a thousand.

.....One of the Methodist clergy, meeting Mr. Beecher in New Hampshire, lately, said to him, "We have not lost faith in you up here, yet, Mr. Beecher." Stretching himself up to his full height Mr. Beecher said, "I have not lost faith in myself, my brother."

.....Gov. Dix has exercised a Christian charity and pardoned Christian Mayer, one of the Tompkins square rioters, an act of justice, a good thing for Mayer, and a better one for Dix, who will save votes by it for the next election, when he will need them.—[Boston News.

.....Queen Victoria is the legal head of the Episcopal Church of England and the Presbyterian Church of Scotland. When she is in England her Presbyterinism is technically called "dissent," and when in Scotland her Episcopalianism there becomes "dissent." She has a morbid hatred of ritualism. The prince of Wales is inclined to ritualistic ceremonies, while his eldest sister, the princess of Germany, is a Lutheran; his brother-in-law, Lord Lorne, a Presbyterian; another brother-in-law, the prince imperial of Prussia, is a Protestant Lutheran; a sister-in law, the duchess of Edinburgh, is a Greek Catholic; her husband is a Low Church Episcopalian; the other brothers and sisters are Episcopalians and Presbyterians by turn, their particular creed depending upon their residence. The princess of Wales clings to the faith she was taught in Denmark.

NEWS ITEMS.

Four back-pay grabbers are heading that reform movement in South Carolina.

Thomas Winship and Joseph H. Sadler have issued a challenge to row any two men in the world a pair-oared race for $1000 a side and the championship of the world.

Six hundred Mennonites, mostly from the southern portion of Russia, arrived at Castle Garden yesterday, en route for the Mennonite colony in Dakota.

The annual reunion of the Society of the Army and Navy of the Gulf, which was appointed to be held in Hartford, Conn., next Wednesday, Sept. 2, has been postponed until next year, at the same place, the date to be announced hereafter.

At a recent yacht race in Portsmouth a little girl named Bray, about ten years of age, fell off the landing at Appledore island into the water. Mr. Julius Ingledredson, who was standing near, jumped after her and brought her safely to land, for which heroic act a purse of $107 was quickly raised for him.

It is estimated that the Scandal case has cost in lawyers' fees, editoral effusions, printers' bills, &c., $500,000. It would have been cheap at half the money.

The officers recruiting for the regular army have received orders not to enlist any except men of good moral character. As a consequence they have been obliged to stop recruiting in Brooklyn.

The comment of the Paper Trade Journal on the disgusting revelations which have just been made in Brooklyn is that if Joseph Parker & Sons will make a sheet of their blotting paper a mile square and two feet thick, and spread it over the City of Churches, so as to absorb all the stains and black there is there, and then burn it up, it would be a benefit to the public, and everybody would breathe more freely.

The tonnage duties, which are paid in currency on all vessels in foreign trade, collected at Boston, usually amount to about $7000 per month, and occasionally reach $10,000 or $12,000. The steamer Batavia paid its annual tax in July, which amounted to $2553. Fifty-five other vessels also paid their tonnage dues in the same month. The smallest amount paid was on the British schooner Martin, which was $9, the vessel measuring only thirty tons.

Mr. Otto Meyer, Austrian consul at Havana, was attacked in Ninety-second street, New York, Friday night by highwaymen and robbed of his watch and pocket-book. Mr. Meyer, who is a large, powerful man, gave the ruffians plenty of trouble and one of them was so badly injured that he was unable to walk and was carried away by his confederates. They beat and kicked Mr. Meyer until they thought him dead. After lying in an insensible condition in the street for over an hour he was picked up by some German friends, and he now lies in a critical condition.

WHAT THEY SAY.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Globe, writing from Newport, remarks regarding the ladies at that watering place:—"The majority of them are from Boston, Philadelphia and New York, whose respective traits are easily detected in the feminine representatives. The Bostonian is the most self satisfied, the Philadelphian the most reserved, the New Yorker the most self possessed. The first is defiant in her provincialism; the second is in a little doubt of herself, as her 'primness and reticence denote; the third is assured of her cosmopolitanism, and convinced she was born to conquer. The Hub depends on her culture and her tongue; the Quaker City on her lineage and propriety; the Manhattan on her individuality and on her capacity to win whosoever she thinks worth her attention.

THOSE BLACK HILLS.—"It is edifying to see how quickly it is assumed by everybody that if the reports of gold in the Black Hills country prove true the Indians will have to be turned out. And yet the Black Hills are an Indian reservation secured to the Sioux by solemn treaty about six years ago. The United States government then agreed that the Indians should not be disturbed in any way by the whites, that neither settlements or military posts should be established there nor any whites suffered to dwell in the country save agents, teachers, etc. Well, under these circumstances the government sent Gen. Custer to see if the reservation was worth enough to make it pay the government to go back on its word. The general will report yes, if the correspondents do not lie, and then we suppose the Indians will be requested to 'move on.' The treaty, with its solemn pledges, will be worth as much as any other piece of waste paper. How beautiful is the spectacle presented by the dealings of a truly Christian nation with their benighted savages! How well calculated is it to impress their dark minds with a feeling sense of the moral excellence of Christianity."—[Springfield Union.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—The last day of Summer.

—Alger's wharf is being lengthened.

—The Hon. Alexander A. Rice is at the Ocean House.

—Judge Ward has gone to Beaver Tail and is the guest of Mr. Wales.

—Mr. Arnold Hazard has returned from his vacation.

—There were 235 guests at the Ocean House yesterday.

—Firemen can get their six dollars and a quarter a piece next Thursday.

—Messrs. Henry and Fred. Schroeder, sons of Henry Schroeder, deceased, are at Wilbour's on Church street for the season.

—Harry Bloodgood's Comique Alliance will appear at the Opera House this evening.

—Proposals are invited for the building of a fire reservoir at the junction of Warner and Gould streets.

—This is a good day to go boating. The last rows of Summer will have to be taken today.

—There will be a casino gathering tomorrow and a brilliant entertainment is looked for.

—The steamers Frances Canonicus and Granite State arrived here from the Vineyard a little after one o'clock today.

—Harry Bloodgood, the Wilson Bros. and Baby Benson all at the Opera House tonight.

—Substantial plank walks have been placed in the Rogers High School yard preparatory for Winter.

—If $1,500 was the amount of the Ocean House bill for the reception of the City of Peking's guests while here what must be the total expense of the excursion?

—Deputy Constable Peabody is at work day and night. Saturday evening he caused considerable commotion among some low groggories in the fifth ward.

—The Hon. August Belmont, Messrs. L. P. Morton, Arthur Bronson, Frank Squire and W. Grosvenor, Mrs. Edward Cooper and Mr. George W. Wales gave receptions or parties during the past week.

At the Rocky Point regatta on Saturday the second prize in the first class was taken by the Annie R. Case, of this city. The prize was $60. The first prize of $120 was won by the Annie of Cedar Grove.

—The President will take the boat at Fall River for New York tonight. His visit here will therefore be very short and it isn't likely that he will make any extensive remarks to the people on the wharf.

—Mr. C. C. Clarke of this city, went to New London today with a gang of men to commence building magazines at Fort Trumbull. Mr. Clarke has accepted the position of overseer. Mr. William Clarke, also of this city, is to act as assistant overseer.

Prof. Cromwell's elegant entertainment opens at the Academy of Music this evening. We learn that a large number of season tickets have been disposed of and that the prospect for a full house is all that can be desired.

—Samuel I. Carr (laymam) officiated in the afternoon and Stephen S. Albro (laymam) in the evening at the Thames street Methodist Episcopal church. The former gentleman officiated at the evening service of the A. M. E. church.

—Steamer Edna brought a good number on her excursion to the city Saturday evening. When off Commient Park an exchange of salutes of rockets, Roman candles and blue lights was made between the boat's company and the people at the Park.

—The Rev. S. Londer was absent yesterday at the Vineyard. The Rev. W. F. Whitcher will visit the Willimantic camp meeting this week. A large number of people from Newport spend the Sabath in the grove.

—The Sunday school of the United Congregational church held a concert yesterday afternoon. The pastor asked questions on the lesson, the superintendent asked questions on the first commandment and the pastor then preached a short sermon to the children.

—The High School Association of Dover, N. H., had a re-union on Thursday, and in the evening, a correspondent of the Boston Journal says: "Mr. Frank Thompson of Newport R. I., gave a fine oration on the subject of "Reserved Power" finely illustrating his theme in its application to both physical and mental forces."

HOSPITAL SUNDAY.—The treasurer of the Newport Hospital has received from the the collections in the churches on Hospital Sunday the following sums:—

Emmanuel church	$160.35
United Congregational church	211.
Trinity church	300.
1st Methodist church	54.27
Unitarian church	52.52
Central Baptist Church	51.12

THE LARCENY CASE.—The credit of working up the Burrill Thornton case belongs to Officer Samuel Beaumont. He has had suspicions of Thornton for a long time and has kept an eye upon his movements for the past year, believing him to be stealing from his unsuspecting employer, but not having sufficient proof to warrant an arrest. Yesterday he called at the jail on Marlboro' street and after considerable cross questioning induced Thornton to give him a list of the parties to whom he had sold goods and who had not paid for them. He finally consented and gave Beaumont a list of his creditors who owed him for goods he had embezzled from Mr. T. M. Seabury, to the amount of about fifty dollars. One party was called upon Saturday night by Beaumont to settle a balance of $17 due Thornton, which they did after a few words. The other parties will be called upon immediately and will doubtless settle for the stolen goods without any remonstrance and so the loss to Mr. Seabury will not be as heavy as it might have been. The value of the goods recovered Friday amounts to $192.

OVERBOARD.—On Saturday last Mr. A. G. Greene went up the bay with a party for the purpose of enjoying a few hours in fishing. All went well and the company enjoyed themselves until the fishing ground was reached when the boat was brought about and Mr. Jarvis Alger went forward to drop the anchor when he was struck with the boom and knocked overboard. He knew how to swim and had a fine opportunity to put his knowledge to practice while Mr. Greene endeavored to get to him with the boat. The man was finally picked up with no damage aside from a thorough wetting and temper a little ruffled.

A ROW,

Last evening considerable of a row occurred in the vicinity of B. McGowan's boarding-house on the Bath road, the particulars of which we learn from Mr. McGowan. Two brothers named Leahy came to his house drunk, one of them having buried a child the same afternoon, and were immediately ordered out, but refused to go and indulged in the most violent language. After a while however, they were ejected, and one of them, spoiling for a fight, invited any one to come from the house and let him thrash them. Both of them being mad with liquor commenced breaking Mr. McGowan's windows when the attraction of Officer Joseph Beaumont was attracted and going to the scene of action he saw that he had his hands full. He took hold of one of the men and attempted to take him to the Station House when the other brother came up behind them and seizing Beaumont's club dealt him several blows, one cutting an ugly gash upon the top of his head. W. S. Hall and Alock McIntosh, happening to be in that neighborhood, came to the assistance of Beaumont just in season to prevent serious consequences and the officer bore his prisoner off triumphantly, never during the melee having let go of him. Beaumont was compelled to draw his revolver but only to intimidate his assailants and no injury was done by it. By this time the officers at the Station House heard of the affair and two of them went to the house of Beaumont's assailant and arrested him but not without a severe struggle during which he tore the clothes off Lieut. Holland, and it was with difficulty that he could be taken to the Station House. A large crowd of spectators were present and there was great excitement, Officer Beaumont displayed unusual bravery and presence of mind throughout the fracas.

CHALLENGE.

I hereby challenge the Phil Sheridan base ball club to play a game for a ball; the Phils to have five outs to an inning, the match to take place on their own ground, and any umpire who indulges in the practice of calling "foul strikers" to be debarred from occupying the position.

By appointing a time, the Sheridans will confer a favor upon Scrub Nine.

Yours &c.

M. J. MCCANN.

THE HEAD OF A WHARF.

To the Editor of the News.

SIR:—I see that you want to know which end of a wharf is the head. Logic has helped me to solve the question thus. The head of a wharf must be its chief end and the chief end of a wharf is to enable vessels to discharge. Therefore, the end where vessels discharge is the head.

ARISTOTLE.

STATE MISCELLANY.

The amount of real estate assessed this year in Pawtucket is $12,301,311, and the amount of personal estate is $4,055,318. Total, $16,356,629. The amount of real estate tax is $152,766.50, and the amount of personal estate tax is $50,681.50. Total, $203,457.80. Unpaid curbing bills, $1211.-74.

The weather last week Wednesday was everything that could be desired for the Glen clambake of the Portsmouth ladies, and so far as that was concerned, success was assured. The affair was entirely successful; the dinner of clams, lobsters, fish-chowder, sweet and common potatoes, green corn, etc., was of the best. The chowder was compounded by Mrs. Ruth W. Borden, and the baking of the clams was attended to by Mr. Pierce A. Faulkner. There were no raffles, lotteries or other swindles, but every one received the fair cash value for money expended. The whole affair was creditable to the Christian Church and its committee.

FOR THE SUMMER.

* * Overcoats are in demand in the mountains.

* * White Mountain extortionists exclaim, "Now is the Winter of our discontent come entirely too soon!"

* * There is less over-dressing at Long Branch than at Saratoga, and ladies can go with less fear and fewer dresses to the former place. There is more street and public promenading in Saratoga, and more frequent visits are made to the large hotels, which are within a few steps of each other, while at the Branch they stretch along the bluff for miles.

* * If a correspondent does not prevaricate some Brooklynites should emigrate for the Summer. He says:—"The age of chivalry has not fled, if we may trust a sojourner at White Sulphur Springs, who tells us there is neither gossip nor light remark here upon the ladies, for the young Virginian has a strange exalted idea of women, and his talk of them partakes of the poetry of Spencer and the fiction of Scott."

* * In answer to the question, What do people do here? a correspondent from the Isle of Shoals says:—"Mainly keep quiet and comfortable. There is little attempt at display—none, I may say, at the Appledore—and nothing to undertake except fishing and sailing. Horses and carriages are as unknown as in Venice, and promenading, in any conventional sense, is out of the question.

* * A Put-in-Bay correspondent of the Cincinnati Times thus discriminates on waltzing: A Kentucky girl is a natural waltzer, and she does it with a charming abandon. An Ohio girl's waltzing is easy, graceful and melodious. If she happens to come from Cincinnati and across the Rhine she swings dreamily round and round in the endless "Dutch waltz." If she comes from Chicago she throws her hair back, jumps up and cracks her heels together and carries off her astonished partner as though a simoom had struck him, and knocks over all intervening obstacles in her mad career around the room. If she is from Indiana she cramps closely and timidly up to her partner, as though she would like to creep into his vest pocket, and melts away with ecstasy as the witching strains of the "Blue Danube" sweep through the hall. If she is from Missouri she crooks her body in the middle like a door hinge, takes her partner by the shoulders and makes him miserable in trying to hop around her without treading on her No 9 shoes. If she comes from Michigan she astonishes her partner by now and then working in a touch of the double shuffle, or a bit of pigeon wing with the waltz step; and if she comes from Arkansas she throws both arms around his neck, rolls up her eyes as she floats away and is heard to murmur, "Oh, hug me, John!"

"Are the doneses back?" inquired Mrs. Spilkins, who hasn't been out of town all Summer. "Yes'm," replied the cook, "and Mrs. Brown and the children got home from Saratoga this morning." "Then, Mary, you may open the front shutters," continued Mrs. Spilkins, "and say that we've returned too."

John Rogers, the American sculptor, is in San Francisco, receiving the hospitable attentions of the prominent patrons of art in that city.

Some wicked wags in the Searsport, Me., Engine Company got up a fire alarm Wednesday evening, for the purpose of turning out their foreman, who has just been married. He was promptly on hand, and taking the situation, had the roll called and assessed fines amounting to $15, on absentees.

DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP

Cures Bowel or Summer Complaints.

Being composed largely of Brandy, Spices and simple astringents, without a particle of Opiate, has proved after a 25 years' trial superior to any other article for Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera-Morbus, Cholera-Infantum, Colic, Cramp, Sick or Sour Stomach, Sea-Sickness, Dyspepsia, &c., and may be implicitly relied upon in the most severe cases, yet so simple and pleasant that it may be given the most delicate infant. It acts upon the system like water on a wilted plant.

Prepared only by Edward Sutton of Providence, R. I. Sold by all dealers in Medicines. [y3-3m-n.h.]

PIMPLES AND HUMORS ON THE FACE.—In this condition of the skin, the VEGETINE is the great remedy as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

☞ The nausea, heart-burn, and constipation which are among the most distressing attendants of pregnancy have been found easily managed by the judicious use of an occasional dose of Milk of Magnesia, which is now regarded as the friend alike of infants and mothers. Caswell Hazzard & Co., Agents.

Misdirected Bile.

The bile is slightly cathartic, and when of the proper quality and poured regularly, as it ought to be, into the upper bowel, it keeps the intestinal canal free from obstruction. But if, owing to the sluggish action of the liver, the secretion be deficient in quality or quantity, or both, costiveness is the result; not can the bowels under such circumstances be permanently regulated, except by an efficient anti-bilious agent. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is such an agent, as well as a painless laxative and a genial tonic. Hence it is a specific for constipation. But this is only one of the many virtues of this unequalled vegetable restorative. It is also a specific for the following diseases:—Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Sourness, or acidity of the stomach, cured by Milk of Magnesia. It is by far the most effective and agreeable aperient and antacid known, and only needs a trial on your part to prove this. Caswell, Hazzard & Co., Agents.

MARRIED.

PECKHAM—BRACEWELL. In this city, August 29, by Rev. W. F. Whitcher, Mr. Jeremiah B. Peckham of Middletown, to Miss Susie Bracewell of this city.

DIED.

PARKER.—In this city, August 31st, Hannah D. Parker, relict of the late Samuel Parker, aged 84 years. Funeral from her late residence No. 37 Division st., Wednesday at 11 o'clock. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

MAWNEY.—In East Greenwich, 27th inst., Nicholas G. Mawney, in the 80th year of his age.

He was the last of the family of the late Pardon Mawney, deceased, which was one of the oldest families in that town, and had many connections in Providence and all parts of the state.

PIMPLES AND HUMORS ON THE FACE.—In this condition of the skin, the VEGETINE is the great remedy as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

☞ The nausea, heart-burn, and constipation which are among the most distressing attendants of pregnancy have been found easily managed by the judicious use of an occasional dose of Milk of Magnesia, which is now regarded as the friend alike of infants and mothers. Caswell Hazzard & Co., Agents.

Misdirected Bile.

The bile is slightly cathartic, and when of the proper quality and poured regularly, as it ought to be, into the upper bowel, it keeps the intestinal canal free from obstruction. But if, owing to the sluggish action of the liver, the secretion be deficient in quality or quantity, or both, costiveness is the result; not can the bowels under such circumstances be permanently regulated, except by an efficient anti-bilious agent. Newport Daily News.

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1874.

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Case of Benton, the District Safe Burglar.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 30.

Forney's Sunday Chronicle speaks in severe terms of the manner in which Benton, one of the District safe burglars, was permitted to be bailed on the nominal security of $2000, only one man, and he a non-resident and unknown here, being on the bond, and calls upon District-Attorney Fisher to resign.

The Penalties of Dueling in Modern Times.

It has now been discovered that, under the law of Virginia, Mosby and Payne have not only forever disfranchised themselves, but are liable to fine and imprisonment for the sending and accepting of a challenge. There is much curiosity felt as to whether the Virginia authorities will take the steps in the premises which the laws call for. It is said to be the intention of some to call the attention of the grand jury of Fauquier county to the matter.

The New British Embassy.

The British embassy, by all odds the handsomest and costliest residence in town, has been finished and will be ready for the occupancy of Sir Edward Thornton on the first of October. Its cost has been about $50,000, and the furnishing will cost half that sum. It has 70 rooms and covers about 10,000 square feet of ground. It is of pressed brick laid in black mortar, and is trimmed with light gray sandstone.

The Indians.

Agent John D. Miles writes from the Cheyenne and Arrapahoe agency at Darlington, Indian Territory, Aug. 19, that Little Robe, White Shield and Pawnee, Cheyenne chiefs, arrived at the agency on the 15th, having left the main Cheyenne camp eight days previous. They brought thirty warriors, fifty-one women and fifty-four children. After a thorough examination as to their loyalty by the agent and military authorities they were enrolled. The party that had the fight at the Adobe Walls consisted of Cheyennes, Kiowas and Comanches, between three and four hundred. Six Cheyennes and six Comanchs were killed, and a number wounded. Bird Medicine, a Kiowa brave, with a party of Kiowas, killed five men on the border settlement of Kansas and three near Medicine Lodge.

FROM NEW YORK.

Plymouth Church.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

Services were held in Plymouth church this morning and evening. No reference was made at either service to the Beecher-Tilton matter. At the evening service Mrs. Beecher had an attack of heart disease, to which she is subject, and had to be taken from the church to her home.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Bloody Conflict Averted in Louisiana.

SHREVEPORT, Aug. 29.

Letters tonight, brought by a courier, stated that 800 armed negroes had assembled below Coushatta, and were constantly receiving re-enforcements from all quarters. The town is guarded by 200 white men, who called for help. Later advices report that all is quiet, and no further trouble is apprehended. The white people have effected the arrest of the following ringleaders, and have them in jail under a strong guard: F. S. Egerton, sheriff; H. W. Twitchell, tax collector; Clarke Holland, register; J. A. Dowstad, collector of De Soto parish; Gilbert Cane, deputy sheriff; W. F. Hoowell, attorney, and six leading negroes. These arrests left the negroes without leaders, and their camp was immediately disbanded. Two negroes and one white man were killed and one white man seriously wounded. There is great rejoicing here over the peaceful termination of what threatened to be a bloody race conflict.

A Fiendish Deed.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., Aug. 30.

August Gardner, a Frenchman, while walking on the railroad track near Henryville, Indiana, last night, was attacked by three men, who tied him on the track, over a small culvert, and left him. Gardner succeeded in getting all the fastenings loose except those holding the left foot, when a passenger train ran over his leg, cutting it off. He fell into the culvert, crawled out, and then lay there until morning, when he was found. He was brought to this city and told this story, and then died.

A Strong Temptation to Lynchers.

POTTSVILLE, Pa. Aug 30.

Saturday night a Shenandoah man, named Lubang, shot and killed a lad named Maguire. The boy was taking fruit. The indignation of the people was so intense that Lubang, at his own request, was lodged in jail here. There is no doubt but that the excited crowds of men would have resorted to lynch law had he remained in the town any longer.

SUNDRIES.

Soundings on a bar—Rapping for drinks.

An unsatisfactory meal—A domestic broil.

A race of sculptors—The Chip-a-way Indians.

The pound of flesh—Making tough steak tender.

Chicago has sixty banks, but some of 'em do their business after sunset.

At Jewell's Hartford reception the Horse Guards were appropriately preceeded by Colt's band.

It is proposed that men who are baldheaded have their monograms painted on the bare spot.

A drunkard is generally a bad arguer, for the oftener he comes to the "pint" the more incoherent he is.

"Great wheat crops in Russia and Hungary." That may be, and neither country contain as many colonels as the United States.

If you want to find out a man's real disposition, take him when he is wet and hungry. If he is amiable then, dry him, and fill him up, and you have an angel.

An honest old farmer, on being informed, the other day, that one of his neighbors owed him a grudge, growled out, "No matter; he never pays anything."

Lord Braxfield, a Scotch judge, once said to an eloquent culprit at the bar, "Ye're a vera clever chiel, man, but I'm thinking ye wad be none the waur o' a hanging."

The St. Louis Republican tells us the strongest glass will sustain two thousand pounds to the square inch. It has also been known to twist a man's legs so that he could not walk.

A Lexington colored woman who was too poor to pay for a funeral applied to the authorities to furnish her "an italic coffin, hearse, five carriages and two buses for the obsequies of her dead baby."

Dean Swift, hearing of a carpenter falling through the scaffolding of a house which he was engaged in repairing, dryly remarked that he liked to see a mechanic go through his work promptly.

It is interesting to note how ignorant the watering place Indians are of the English language at all times except when you talk money to them. They fully understand high priced English, but ignore low figures.

A paper estimates that the Beecher-Tilton scandal has cost, in types, telegrams, correspondents and lawyers, $500,000. Probably. But who is to calculate the estimate of the mischief it has done to the morals of the community?

The London Musical World calls Rubenstein's dance music the most "elephantine, rhinoceroslan, hippopotamusian, mammothian, krakonian, ever heard." Rube's piano pounding, also, has reminded some people of stirring up a menagerie.

A writer who spoke of "buttered thunder," when asked by another if that had any affinity to "greased lightning," manifested some anger in explaining that "buttered thunder" was intended.

It is said that the tribe of Osage Indians has been reduced to a bob-tailed pony, a cross-eyed squaw and a government agent. This is pretty severe upon the tribe, but it is a very handsome fortune for the agent.

In the year 1756 the young constable of Castilla was sent by his sovereign to felicitate Pope Sixtus V. on his exaltation to the papal throne. The pontiff, displeased that so young an ambassador had been deputed to him, could not help saying, "And well, sir, did your master want men, by sending me an ambassador without a beard?" "If my sovereign had thought," replied the proud young Spaniard, "that merit consisted in a beard, he would have sent you a goat, and not a gentleman."

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

"Love at First Sight" is a story of English life. It is a bright morning in January that we are introduced into the Curbspine family, consisting of a mother of fifty, and an only daughter, Gertrude. The former is a stately female, and the daughter a perfect Hebe. Letters in those days found their way to their destination slowly, and the present missive from Geoffrey Curbspine, the son, announced his transfer from Africa to the 120th Light Infantry. He was coming home after an absence of ten years, and was determined his mother and sister should see more of society during his vacation. Their resources were very limited, and they were obliged at times to part with some household goods to meet the demands on their income. At this time they sell some family portraits, about two hundred years old, and among them one so resembling Gertrude, who happened to be present at the sale, that Earl Warkworth not only bought the picture, but determined to possess the lady also. He was some time discovering her whereabouts, but after many searches, found her at their home in Kent, where she had returned. Having been once disappointed in love, he determines on a ruse, and hires out as a woodsman on her mother's place, where he could daily watch her unperceived. His many acts of daring and courage so attracted the daughter, that it was with little difficulty she said "Yes" to his proposal, and the story closes with Gertrude's discovery that she has not only won a husband, but a coronet also. The book is issued in a large octavo volume, price fifty cents, and is for sale by all booksellers, or copies will be sent to any one, post-paid, by the publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, on receipt of price by them.

FOR SALE.
The Atlantic House Building.

THERE is enough good material in this building for half a dozen dwelling houses, or it can be used to great advantage in the erection of a hotel somewhere on the Ocean or Bay shore. The purchaser can obtain through the undersigned, at a very low price, a long lease of a splendid shore lot, with a bathing beach, upon which the hotel could be erected.

This is a fine opportunity for making money, as there is nothing more needed here than a hotel on the shore.

For further particulars, apply to T. G. FORD, Corner of Bellevue avenue and Catherine street. aug14

Advice to Bird Owners.

VERMIN.

A GREAT trouble to birds in confinement, are insects, (small lice, of a reddish color), which often cause the death of a bird, though persons do not know what is the matter with them. They are generally produced by uncleanliness, and will, particularly in a wooden cage, increase very fast. The symptoms are, that when the bird during the day is observed to be often picking itself, and the wing and shoulders becoming bald, the crevices and joinings of their cage becoming dirty outside. The insects hide themselves during the day, in these crevices &c., creep out at night, crawl up to the birds and torment them most unmercifully. They will suck the blood out of them and prevent the poor things from resting all night. The bird thus tormented, will appear dull and heavy during the day; ceases singing, and if relief be not given them, it very often causes their death.

The above malady may be remedied by procuring a package of the GERMAN INSECT DESTROYING POWDER.

Newport Daily News.

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1874.

A SWEET SMELLING ODOR.—A writer in Harper's Magazine says: "Musk is a secretion, and is obtained from the musk-deer (Moschus moschiferus) a pretty little animal inhabiting the higher mountain ranges of China, Tonquin, and Thibet. The musk is found in a small pocket or pouch under the belly of the deer. The hunters cut off this pouch, which becoming dry, preserves its contents, and in this state the best article reaches our markets. Musk, when moderately dry, is an unctuous powder of reddish brown color. It gives out a powerful odor of a warm aromatic character and most wonderful persistency. Blending with almost every other scent, it discovers but little of its own peculiarity in compounds, when used in proper proportion, and yet gives them great permanency. In point of general usefulness to the perfumer it is probably unequalled by any other substance for, although coarse and undesirable in a pure state the most popular compounds are those in which it is an ingredient. Genuine musk is very costly, being worth, when separated from its sac and all extraneous matter from twenty-five to thirty-five dollars the ounce. Its great strength compensates in a measure for its price. One part of musk, it is said will scent more than three thousand parts of inodorous powder.

LATE FODDER CROPS.—There is no better fodder crop for horses that can be planted so late as July 1 than millit or Hungarian grass. Either of these crops, which are very similar in every respect, may be sown upon a clean, mellow piece of soil, using half a bushel of seed per acre. The crop should be cut as soon as the blossom is over, and before the seed is fully formed. It should be cured in the cock the same as clover, and should be exposed to as little sun as possible. It may be put into the stack or barn in a comparatively green state. Over drying injures it. This fodder is more nutritious than corn fodder, and for horses that are doing very light work will be sufficient with the help of a small quantity of grain.

WAYSIDE INNS.—Along some of these roads there are numbers of wayside inns, most of which have sprung up within a few years past, to meet the demand for accomodation and refreshment that has resulted from the decided success of Coney Island as a popular summer resort. Several of these places look both snug and picturesque, embowered as they are amid luxuriant foliage, with flower gardens about them, and signs setting forth their styles and titles dangling from posts planted by the side of the road. They are mostly patronized by men of the sporting class, livery-stable keepers and the like, whose talk is less of literature and theology than of horses, billiards, the prize ring city government, and offices of the sinecure sort. Sunday is the great gala day for these as well as for the revellers who crowd to the island by boat or car, and on this account it may well be imagined that no class of people is Sunday regarded with greater favor than by the steamboat men, horse-car men, innkeepers, and men who hire out dresses at the bathing houses on the beach.—[Atlantic for September.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond possibility of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Vinegar Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the power of acting as a powerful agent in thoroughly cleansing the System of all impurities of the Blood, whenever it may be found obstructed or sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish; cleanse it when you find the impurities of the Blood are causing the various organs of the body to become deranged; you will find a pure Blood and a correct state of the system will follow.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humor and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

HAVE YOU TRIED

JUNIPER?

ARE YOU

Weak, Nervous, or Debilitated?

Are you so Languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making?

Then try JUNIPERA, the wonderful tonic and Invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secretive organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces.

It is no alcoholic or pethoric, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen.

It will regulate the Bowels, quiets the nerves, and gives such a genial tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a new person.

Its operation is not violent, but its characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually life trouble

"Folds their tents, like the Arabs,
And silently steal away."

This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long used with wonderful remedial results, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, the most powerful tonic and alterative known.

Ask your druggist for it.
